

CBMU MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

CBMU Membership may be accorded to any insurance company legally licensed to transact marine insurance in Canada either in its own name, or in the name of an organization authorized to underwrite marine insurance on its behalf and holding exclusive underwriting authority for one or more Provinces, or to any company operating exclusively as a managing general agent and authorized to transact marine insurance in Canada, provided such company is affiliated contractually with another company holding Membership in the CBMU.

No company or group of companies whose marine business is under common management shall hold more than one Membership.

A member shall have permanently established a qualified management or, be a part of an established management organization; and underwrite a significant and diversified portfolio of marine insurance.

Each Member shall nominate one of its officers or senior marine personnel, resident in Canada, to be its Voting Representative; and each Member may nominate one Alternate Representative, who may act on behalf of the Voting Representative at Annual and General Meetings of the Members.

CBMU membership fee has two components: annual fee of $1,500 + applicable tax (same amount for all members) and members' assessment fee based on the amount of Marine premium written in the previous underwriting year. Minimum assessment fee is $1,500 + applicable tax.
